

Troubleshooting: Expired Credential Offer

- From the moment of the creation of a new Credential the link for the Credential Subject to download the Credential have a lifespan of 72 hours. If the Credential Subject didn't download the Credential in that time or fails to do it there is an option to send a fresh e-mail notification to the Credential Subject with the instruction and a new functional link to start the process. To do so click on the status of the Credential to access its details.
